

“Who Is My American Hero and Why?”

I have many reasons that my mom is my hero. Here are some things I want to tell you about my mom.

First, my mom is brave. My mom is my hero because she was in the air force. My mom directed the jets to land on the ground. She was in the highest tower which was 185 feet high.

Second, she graduated from college. She teaches high school kids how to do the computers. She worked really hard and had to do lots of homework.

Third, she works really hard. She saves all her money so my sister and I can go to college and become what we want to be in life. My mom has to do everything by herself because my dad and she are divorced. She gets up early and cooks, cleans, shovels the driveway, and helps us with homework.

Now you know three reasons why my mom is my hero. I thank her every day for what she does for me.
